All About the Town

HOW MYSTERIOUS can you get: An investigator who has been tailing him "all over the place" says that Jim Garrison, the New Orleans D.A., "is now trying to get something on young Thoresen, the kid with the arsenal." So is U.S. Atty. Cecil Poole, and I wish them luck. I also wish that Garrison would end the suspense and that Thoresen would come to trial, even if it means further embarrassment to the CIA. All these loose ends!
